

Prayer Watch - Sunday 11th June 2023

Tupo Ludford-Brooks

I have set you this day over the nations so that you can destroy the destructions of the enemy and stop what the enemy has started.

Jenny Watson

When they begin the construction work in the back, watch for what I will release in the Spirit from this place because there is a correlation and a connection between what happens. What we have done here in opening an open heaven, we have also done something in the ground. When the ground begins to shake something is going to shift in the atmosphere from this place.

What will eventually be on our ground is an enormous power plant. The Lord says, As in the natural so in the Spirit. There is going to be some shifting and shaking of the ground under your feet. You will feel it in the natural and you will see it in the Spirit.

Suzanne Farley

In the natural they will tap into the natural power supply but in the Spirit there is going to be an unzipping, a releasing, an uncapping of the spiritual power supply. That which has been soaked into the ground, that which has been drilled into the ground, that which has been received by the earth over the last 13 years, there is going to be a tapping into and an uncapping and it is going to release across the nations. I have already provided the grid, I have already made the connections, I have already made the network in order that the power can be released.

Jenny Watson

You are not seeing it in the natural now but you are preparing it in the Spirit. They will not see it right now but when it happens they will see it.

Ruvimbo Makwiramiti

You spoiled the Egyptians and you got the materials that you need to go, to cross over. The power plant, the explosion that will take place is like what happened when the Lord gave the Torah to the children of Israel. You have learnt from the children of Israel. You have learnt from history. You are in a good position to be prepared, not to do like the children of Israel did. So extend your hearts to receive the word, to receive the power, to receive what it takes so that you can spread the power, I can spread the power through you to the ends of the earth.

Kevin Damant

Last year I prophesied about this building being a building site. The Lord says, This building site is now complete. The painters and decorators are in at the minute. The painters and decorators are in and the colours are vibrant. Between now and the Head of the Year, you need to be extolling and prophesying Ezekiel 37. You need to be prophesying to the dead bones of this town and this 50 miles radius. We need to be prophesying and calling back into life that which is dormant and that which is dead. That which is happening on the back is a bonus for your faithfulness. Now is the time to stretch and push out beyond these four walls.

Rose Damant

Just as in the natural I declared that you had to speak to Pharaoh and declare, Let My people go, let My church go, let this building go. I hear the Lord saying this is the time when you will declare, Let My people go. Lord we remind You of the Your word that says, You will whistle them in from the North, South, East and West. Just as we declared, Let the building go, we declare in the Spirit realm, Let the saints go! We welcome you, we welcome you.

Suzanne Farley

The power will act as a defibrillator to restart and recalibrate the heart in this town and in this nation.

Tupo Ludford-Brooks

Haven't I already made you a network? What are you a network? Now is the time when I am connecting you to the European nations that are connected to the grid. This time it will not be the same as you have known it before because the power has gone up. I am even going to increase your capacity because the capacity that the nations needs is actually bigger than what you think. Widen your heart, widen your understanding because what I am doing is greater than what you can imagine.

Dit McCallum

I am separating the power brokers from the power breakers. You are the capacitors and where I am connecting you out, you are going to see the strongholds of the enemy and the power brokers in the enemies camp are going to crumble, they are going to fall, they are going to become confused. You are marching forth in a new way, in a new power because there is no limitation, there is nothing that can stop what I am doing in the nations. Even in Burton-on-Trent, you are going to see a change in local government so that they will come into line with what I am doing in your town. It will have a knock on effect into other places. The government is on My shoulder and I place it firmly on your shoulders to declare the kingdom that I am building within this nation that will go out to the other nations. So stand strong! No limitation!

Howard McCallum

This will be a place set aside for glory.

Eleanor Becker

I have caused you to dig into this ground here. You have actually penetrated the concrete that is on this ground and it is really thick and really hard and really difficult. You have stayed and you have been faithful to Me in doing what you have been doing and what I have called you to do. When the diggers are going to come on the other side and they are going to take the concrete off, what will happen is that things are going to be released out of the earth that were not able to be released beforehand. There is actually a well over there and they are going to open up that well and that is going to change things in this area.

Jenny Watson

Regions of captivity are going to be unlocked. If we can be on site when they make the first jab we should because we have eyes to see what is happening in the Spirit realm. Treasures of darkness are going to come forth out of it and that will be a sign.

Shauna Chapman

Trees of righteousness; the seeds that are already planted in this ground are going to start to germinate, are going to come up.

Guest

What happens here is going to be the opposite of what is happening at CERN.

Joy Ryan

I saw gushing of water coming forth. From the ancient well in this place of St Modwen, the Lord is releasing freedom and deliverance and it was going from here to the ends of the earth.

Karen Gosnall

We are stepping out and we are stepping through. Out of the old and into the new. Breaking out and breaking forth. Out of the constraints of this narrow course. Stretching forth our tents pegs to the right and to the left as God our Father brings us out into that spacious place. Now possessing nations, making desolate cities inhabited. No longer shamed by widowhood but with Jesus as our husband. Heading from our past and standing firm in the present. Decreeing our destiny, yes our future inheritance. With boldness and courage and no fear of man. Armed with our spiritual weapons and God's battle plan. Filled with His Spirit and washed in His blood. Not by might or by power but by the Spirit of the Lord. Watching and waiting and rooted in His word. Ushering in His Kingdom and seeing His will being done.

Our enemies are not made of flesh and blood; they are the powers and principalities of this dark world. We are arising and shining and God's light is breaking forth. The people dwelling in darkness are seeing the glory of the Lord. We have lost our fear of failure and we know we are on the winning side. Jesus our great commander bids us now, abide. Hidden with Christ in God above. Seated in heavenly places, we march now as one. Fear has gripped our enemy. Satan thought that we had died. The Ecclesia is now arising. Jesus is calling forth His Bride.

With the Spirit of wisdom and revelation in the intimate knowledge of Him, we are rooted and grounded in His love and strength and doing more than we can ask or think. We are now clothed in His glory, beholding the pure and spotless Lamb. The Bride has taken her rightful place crying, come Lord Jesus come.
